

Run Description

POSITION:	Fellow in Urogynaecology
DEPARTMENT:	Obstetrics and Gynaecology
PLACE OF WORK:	Counties Manukau Health (CMH)
RESPONSIBLE TO:	Clinical Director of Obstetrics and Gynaecology through direct supervision by their clinical supervising senior Medical Officers (SMOs) who have a special interest in urogynaecology.
FUNCTIONAL RELATIONSHIPS:	Consultant gynaecologists with special interest in urogynaecology Obstetricians and Gynaecologists Midwives Nurses Clerical and Administration staff
PRIMARY OBJECTIVE:	To continue training as an Obstetrician and Gynaecologist and develop the skills, experience and research background to achieve a specialist post as a gynaecologist with a specialinterest in urogynaecology. The position is an accredited sub-specilty training position, although the Fellow does not have to be a sub-specilty trainee.
RUN RECOGNITION:	The Department is accredited by the Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Obstetrics and Gynaecology as a training institution and has been granted 2 year accreditation with until October 2019.
RUN PERIOD:	12 months

Section 1: Fellow Responsibilities

Area		Responsibilities
General	1.	Learn relevant clinical anatomy by self directed learning, direct clinical exposure and attendance at an Anatomy Workshop.
	2.	Gain surgical skills relevant to advanced urogynaecological practice, including skills in endoanal ultrasound and transperineal ultrasound, urodynamics, and cystoscopy
	3.	Gain skills in the medical management of pelvic floor dysfunction.
	4.	Anticipate and manage surgical complications and the postoperative management of urogynaecological cases.
	5.	Assist in the organisation and facilitation of OASIS workshop, Perineal tear workshops and the Anatomy of Complication workshop.
	6.	Participate in undergraduate and postgraduate teaching in Obstetrics and

Area	Responsibilities
	Gynaecology.
	7. MMH urogynaecology is an established member of the New Zealand Pelvic Floor Research Group. This has resulted in peer reviewed publications, presentations at National and International meetings. The fellow will be required to undertake research projects as part of the group and actively participate in writing and presentation of research.
	8. The Urogynaecology database is well established and quality/audit projects will be part of the requirement for the fellow position. There is currently an established clinic for audit of mesh patients.
	9. Attend outpatient clinics allied to provision urogynaecology including the perineal tear clinic, urology clinic and colorectal physiology clinic.
Acute admitting	It is expected that the Fellow, as anadvanced trainee, take appropriate responsibility and demonstrate initiative and independence in his/her role as the most qualified of the junior staff. The fellow will provide clinical services to Women's Health Obstetrics and Gynaecology Service which may include:
	 Elective Surgery Major and minor gynaecological surgery Major and minor obstetric procedures including teaching junior registrars on elective caesarean lists
On-Duty	Depending on the previous experience of the Fellow, exposure to fulfilling the role of SMO onduty (Obstetrics and Gynaecology), during the day, will be provided, with a 2 nd SMOavailable for assistance and medico legal responsibility.
	It is the expectation of the department that on occasions when junior staff are absent the Fellow will step in to support these junior colleagues by doing locums remunerated according to the RMO MECA. As well as operating with the consultant surgeons, the Fellow will also have opportunity for independent surgery where appropriate.
Administration	There will be a detailed handover at any change of duty. Appropriate written and dictated notes will be made whenever necessary. The Fellow will be responsible for following up any investigations ordered.

Section 2: Training and Education

Training and Education

The attachment fits with the training expectations of the RANZCOG for advanced trainees. Individualised teaching objectives will be set in consultation with the Fellow at the beginning of the appointment.

The Fellow is expected to take an active role in teaching, both in the formal teaching programme and in the surgical training of more junior colleagues and with other agencies and communities as appropriate (including at undergraduate level).

Ongoing education will be provided by SMOsand other team members through a variety of mechanisms.

Section 3: Roster

Roster

Hours of Work

Ordinary Hours: 40 hours per week, Monday to Friday 0800 - 1600

Weekday Long days - 0800 - 2230

Weekends: Long days – Saturday and Sunday 0800 – 2030

Fellows are required to work as per their published roster. Weekend long days will be rostered at a 1:4 frequency. A maximum of two weekday long days will be rostered per week with preference given to Monday, Fridays and Public Holidays.

The weekly timetable includes on average at least 2 OT lists 1 day of research /audit, and a urodynamics session. There will also be attendance at the perineal tear clinic and urogynaecology outpatient clinics. An additional non-clinical portfolio will be discussed with the Fellow at the beginning of the run and may include over-sight of the registrar roster, guideline development or teaching.

Section 4: Cover

Other Resident and Specialist Cover

There are five Fellow positions employed in the O&G service. Four Fellows will contribute to the after-hours roster with the fifth Fellow position working in a relief capacity by providing after-hours cover for planned leave. The after-hours relief component will rotate amoungst the five Fellow positions every three months. Day time duties will remain that of the individual Fellow.

The Clinical director is supported by Clinical Leads in Obstetrics and Gynaecology.

Section 5: Performance appraisal

Performance will be assessed by 2 supervising urogynaecologists with feedback to the RANZCOG nominated training supervisor

Performance will be assessed on the above responsibilities and other relevant performance measures which will be discussed at formal meetingsheld at least three monthly with the training supervisor.

If there are performance deficits this will be identified during the attachment and discussions will be held as to how they will be corrected.

Section 6: Hours and Salary Category

Average Working Hours		Service Commitments
Basic hours (Mon-Fri)	40.00	The Service, together with the RMO Support Unit will be responsible for the preparation of any Rosters.
Rostered additional hours (inc. nights, weekends & long days)	9
All other unrostered hours	8.49
Total hours per week	57.49

Salary The salary for this attachment will be detailed as a Category C.