

RUN DESCRIPTION

POSITION:	Registrar
DEPARTMENT:	Clinical Immunology
PLACE OF WORK:	Auckland City Hospital
RESPONSIBLE TO:	Clinical Director and Business Manager of Clinical Immunology through a nominated Consultant
FUNCTIONAL RELATIONSHIPS:	Healthcare consumers, Hospital and community based healthcare workers
PRIMARY OBJECTIVE:	To facilitate the management of patients under the care of Clinical Immunology
RUN RECOGNITION:	This run is recognised by the RACP and RCPA as a training position for specialist qualification
RUN PERIOD:	6 months

Section 1: Registrar's Responsibilities

Area	Responsibilities
General	Manage the assessment and admission of acute and elective patients under the care of his/her team. Undertake clinical responsibilities as directed by the Consultant. Also organise relevant investigations and ensure the results are followed up, sighted and electronically signed;
	Responsible for patient referrals and day to day ward management of patients under their team's care, in consultation with others involved in the care of the patient where appropriate;
	Work closely with medical specialists in provision of assessment and investigations of new patients and follow-ups in outpatient clinics
	Undertake diagnostic and treatment procedures appropriate to the subspecialty
	Maintain a high standard of communication with patients, patients' families and staff;
	Inform consultants of the status of patients especially if there is an unexpected event;
	Attend hand-over, team and departmental meetings as required.
Admitting	Assess and admit Clinical Immunology patients referred by ED or from the community

Immunology matters; Authorise patients to be transferred to and be seen by the Clinical Immunology service when appropriate When allocated ward duties within the service undertake regular examination management of, and updating of management plan of admitted patients for whom the team is responsible on a frequency agreed with the clinical director; Ensure x-rays are organised for weekly team radiology session; Ensure relevant documents, e.g. discharge summary, medication card and follow-upappointments are given to patient on discharge as necessary. Ensure weekend plans for patient's management are documented in the notes; When not on duty on Friday evening or the weekend, inform the on-duty medical state about patients whose condition requires monitoring and review; Complete documentation on Friday prior to known or likely weekend discharges. Outpatients Assess and manage patients referred to outpatient clinics and run the clinics on behallow of senior staff where appropriate Communicate with referring person following patient attendance at clinics; Arrange and perform outpatient investigations Regularly review immunodeficiency patients attending daystay for IVIG to ensure the there are no acute problems that the IVIG dose is adequate and that 6 monthly follow up is organised. Supervise Immunology Day Ward venom and drug desensitisation and food and druchallenges in association with an Immunology nurse and SMO. Administration Administration Administration of the Clinical Director, assist with operational research in order tenhance the performance of the Service; Dictate discharge summaries on patients that are discharged by their team and letter to General Practitioners following outpatient visits in a timely fashion; Obtain informed consent for procedures within the framework of the Medical Counce guidelines which state: 1. The practitioner who is providing treatment is responsible for obtaining informed consent beforehand for their patient. The Medical Council believes that the responsibili		and other medical and medical subspecialty patients when required by the attached roster
Inpatients • When allocated ward duties within the service undertake regular examination amanagement of, and updating of management plan of admitted patients for whom the team is responsible on a frequency agreed with the clinical director; • Ensure x-rays are organised for weekly team radiology session; • Ensure relevant documents, e.g. discharge summary, medication card and follow-up appointments are given to patient on discharge as necessary. • Ensure weekend plans for patient's management are documented in the notes; • When not on duty on Friday evening or the weekend, inform the on-duty medical state about patients whose condition requires monitoring and review; • Complete documentation on Friday prior to known or likely weekend discharges. Outpatients • Assess and manage patients referred to outpatient clinics and run the clinics on behall of senior staff where appropriate • Communicate with referring person following patient attendance at clinics; • Arrange and perform outpatient investigations • Regularly review immunodeficiency patients attending daystay for IVIG to ensure that there are no acute problems that the IVIG dose is adequate and that 6 monthly follow up is organised. • Supervise Immunology Day Ward venom and drug desensitisation and food and druchallenges in association with an Immunology nurse and SMO. Administration • Maintain a satisfactory standard of documentation in the files of patients. A prescriptions and notes are to be signed, with a printed name and locator number legibly recorded; • Be responsible for certifying death and complete appropriate documentation; • At the direction of the Clinical Director, assist with operational research in order tenhance the performance of the Service; • Dictate discharge summaries on patients that are discharged by their team and letter to General Practitioner's following outpatient visits in a timely fashion; • Obtain informed consent for procedures within the framework of the Medical Counce beforehand for their patient. The Med	On-Call management of, and updating of management plan of admitted patients for whom the team is responsible on a frequency agreed with the clinical director; Ensure x-rays are organised for weekly team radiology session; Ensure relevant documents, e.g. discharge summary, medication card and follow-u appointments are given to patient on discharge as necessary. Ensure weekend plans for patient's management are documented in the notes; When not on duty on Friday evening or the weekend, inform the on-duty medical sta about patients whose condition requires monitoring and review; Complete documentation on Friday prior to known or likely weekend discharges. Outpatients Assess and manage patients referred to outpatient clinics and run the clinics on beha of senior staff where appropriate Communicate with referring person following patient attendance at clinics; Arrange and perform outpatient investigations Regularly review immunodefficiency patients attending daystay for IVIG to ensure the there are no acute problems that the IVIG dose is adequate and that 6 monthly follow up is organised. Supervise Immunology Day Ward venom and drug desensitisation and food and dru challenges in association with an Immunology nurse and SMO. Administration Maintain a satisfactory standard of documentation in the files of patients. A prescriptions and notes are to be signed, with a printed name and locator numbe legibly recorded; Be responsible for certifying death and complete appropriate documentation; At the direction of the Clinical Director, assist with operational research in order tenhance the performance of the Service; Dictate discharge summaries on patients that are discharged by their team and letter to General Practitioners following outpatient visits in a timely fashion; Obtain informed consent for procedures within the framework of the Medical Councinguidelines which state: 1. "The practitioner who is providing treatment is responsible for obtaining informed consent beforehand for their patient. The Medical Cou		Authorise patients to be transferred to and be seen by the Clinical Immunology service when appropriate
Ensure relevant documents, e.g. discharge summary, medication card and follow-u appointments are given to patient on discharge as necessary. Ensure weekend plans for patient's management are documented in the notes; When not on duty on Friday evening or the weekend, inform the on-duty medical sta about patients whose condition requires monitoring and review; Complete documentation on Friday prior to known or likely weekend discharges. Outpatients Assess and manage patients referred to outpatient clinics and run the clinics on beha of senior staff where appropriate Communicate with referring person following patient attendance at clinics; Arrange and perform outpatient investigations Regularly review immunodeficiency patients attending daystay for IVIG to ensure the there are no acute problems that the IVIG dose is adequate and that 6 monthly follow up is organised. Supervise Immunology Day Ward venom and drug desensitisation and food and drughallenges in association with an Immunology nurse and SMO. Administration Administration Maintain a satisfactory standard of documentation in the files of patients. A prescriptions and notes are to be signed, with a printed name and locator number legibly recorded; Be responsible for certifying death and complete appropriate documentation; At the direction of the Clinical Director, assist with operational research in order the enhance the performance of the Service; Dictate discharge summaries on patients that are discharged by their team and letter to General Practitioner who is providing treatment is responsible for obtaining informed consent beforehand for their patient. The Medical Council believes that the responsibility for obtaining consent always lies with the consultant — as the one performing the procedure, they muse nesure the necessary information is communicated and discussed." 2. "Council believes that obtaining informed consent is a skill best learned by the hous surgeon observing consultants and experienced registers in the clinical setting.	Inpatients	management of, and updating of management plan of admitted patients for whom t appointments are given to patient on discharge as necessary. Ensure weekend plans for patient's management are documented in the notes; When not on duty on Friday evening or the weekend, inform the on-duty medical sta about patients whose condition requires monitoring and review; Complete documentation on Friday prior to known or likely weekend discharges. Outpatients Assess and manage patients referred to outpatient clinics and run the clinics on beha of senior staff where appropriate Communicate with referring person following patient attendance at clinics; Arrange and perform outpatient investigations Regularly review immunodeficiency patients attending daystay for IVIG to ensure the there are no acute problems that the IVIG dose is adequate and that 6 monthly follow up is organised. Supervise Immunology Day Ward venom and drug desensitisation and food and druchallenges in association with an Immunology nurse and SMO. Administration Maintain a satisfactory standard of documentation in the files of patients. A prescriptions and notes are to be signed, with a printed name and locator number legibly recorded; Be responsible for certifying death and complete appropriate documentation; At the direction of the Clinical Director, assist with operational research in order to enhance the performance of the Service; Dictate discharge summaries on patients that are discharged by their team and letter to General Practitioners following outpatient visits in a timely fashion; Obtain informed consent for procedures within the framework of the Medical Council guidelines which state: 1. "The practitioner who is providing treatment is responsible for obtaining informed consent beforehand for their patient. The Medical Council believes that the responsibility for obtaining consent always lies with the consultant – as the one performing the procedure, they muse the necessary information is communicated and discussed." 2. "Council believes that obtaining informed consent is a skill best learned by the hous surge		Ensure x-rays are organised for weekly team radiology session;
When not on duty on Friday evening or the weekend, inform the on-duty medical stal about patients whose condition requires monitoring and review; Complete documentation on Friday prior to known or likely weekend discharges. Assess and manage patients referred to outpatient clinics and run the clinics on behall of senior staff where appropriate Communicate with referring person following patient attendance at clinics; Arrange and perform outpatient investigations Regularly review immunodeficiency patients attending daystay for IVIG to ensure the there are no acute problems that the IVIG dose is adequate and that 6 monthly follow up is organised. Supervise Immunology Day Ward venom and drug desensitisation and food and drughallenges in association with an Immunology nurse and SMO. Maintain a satisfactory standard of documentation in the files of patients. A prescriptions and notes are to be signed, with a printed name and locator number legibly recorded; Be responsible for certifying death and complete appropriate documentation; At the direction of the Clinical Director, assist with operational research in order to general Practitioners following outpatient visits in a timely fashion; Obtain informed consent for procedures within the framework of the Medical Council guidelines which state: 1. "The practitioner who is providing treatment is responsible for obtaining informed consent beforehand for their patient. The Medical Council believes that the responsibility for obtaining consent always lies with the consultant — as the one performing the procedure, they musensure the necessary information is communicated and discussed." 2. "Council believes that obtaining informed consent is a skill best learned by the hous surgeon observing consultants and experienced registrars in the clinical setting. Probationer		• Ensure relevant documents, e.g. discharge summary, medication card and follow-up appointments are given to patient on discharge as necessary.
about patients whose condition requires monitoring and review; Complete documentation on Friday prior to known or likely weekend discharges. Assess and manage patients referred to outpatient clinics and run the clinics on beha of senior staff where appropriate Communicate with referring person following patient attendance at clinics; Arrange and perform outpatient investigations Regularly review immunodeficiency patients attending daystay for IVIG to ensure the there are no acute problems that the IVIG dose is adequate and that 6 monthly follow up is organised. Supervise Immunology Day Ward venom and drug desensitisation and food and druchallenges in association with an Immunology nurse and SMO. Administration Maintain a satisfactory standard of documentation in the files of patients. A prescriptions and notes are to be signed, with a printed name and locator number legibly recorded; Be responsible for certifying death and complete appropriate documentation; At the direction of the Clinical Director, assist with operational research in order the enhance the performance of the Service; Dictate discharge summaries on patients that are discharged by their team and letter to General Practitioners following outpatient visits in a timely fashion; Obtain informed consent for procedures within the framework of the Medical Council guidelines which state: 1. "The practitioner who is providing treatment is responsible for obtaining informed consent always lies with the consultant – as the one performing the procedure, they muse ensure the necessary information is communicated and discussed." 2. "Council believes that obtaining informed consent is a skill best learned by the hous surgeon observing consultants and experienced registrars in the clinical setting. Probationer		Ensure weekend plans for patient's management are documented in the notes;
Assess and manage patients referred to outpatient clinics and run the clinics on beha of senior staff where appropriate Communicate with referring person following patient attendance at clinics; Arrange and perform outpatient investigations Regularly review immunodeficiency patients attending daystay for IVIG to ensure the there are no acute problems that the IVIG dose is adequate and that 6 monthly follow up is organised. Supervise Immunology Day Ward venom and drug desensitisation and food and drug challenges in association with an Immunology nurse and SMO. Administration Maintain a satisfactory standard of documentation in the files of patients. A prescriptions and notes are to be signed, with a printed name and locator number legibly recorded; Be responsible for certifying death and complete appropriate documentation; At the direction of the Clinical Director, assist with operational research in order to enhance the performance of the Service; Dictate discharge summaries on patients that are discharged by their team and letter to General Practitioners following outpatient visits in a timely fashion; Obtain informed consent for procedures within the framework of the Medical Counce guidelines which state: 1. "The practitioner who is providing treatment is responsible for obtaining informed consent beforehand for their patient. The Medical Council believes that the responsibility for obtaining consent always lies with the consultant – as the one performing the procedure, they must ensure the necessary information is communicated and discussed." 2. "Council believes that obtaining informed consent is a skill best learned by the hous surgeon observing consultants and experienced registrars in the clinical setting. Probationer		When not on duty on Friday evening or the weekend, inform the on-duty medical staff about patients whose condition requires monitoring and review;
of senior staff where appropriate Communicate with referring person following patient attendance at clinics; Arrange and perform outpatient investigations Regularly review immunodeficiency patients attending daystay for IVIG to ensure the there are no acute problems that the IVIG dose is adequate and that 6 monthly follow up is organised. Supervise Immunology Day Ward venom and drug desensitisation and food and druchallenges in association with an Immunology nurse and SMO. Administration Maintain a satisfactory standard of documentation in the files of patients. A prescriptions and notes are to be signed, with a printed name and locator number legibly recorded; Be responsible for certifying death and complete appropriate documentation; At the direction of the Clinical Director, assist with operational research in order to enhance the performance of the Service; Dictate discharge summaries on patients that are discharged by their team and letter to General Practitioners following outpatient visits in a timely fashion; Obtain informed consent for procedures within the framework of the Medical Council guidelines which state: 1. "The practitioner who is providing treatment is responsible for obtaining informed consent beforehand for their patient. The Medical Council believes that the responsibility for obtaining consent always lies with the consultant – as the one performing the procedure, they must ensure the necessary information is communicated and discussed." 2. "Council believes that obtaining informed consent is a skill best learned by the hous surgeon observing consultants and experienced registrars in the clinical setting. Probationer		Complete documentation on Friday prior to known or likely weekend discharges.
 Arrange and perform outpatient investigations Regularly review immunodeficiency patients attending daystay for IVIG to ensure that there are no acute problems that the IVIG dose is adequate and that 6 monthly follow up is organised. Supervise Immunology Day Ward venom and drug desensitisation and food and druchallenges in association with an Immunology nurse and SMO. Maintain a satisfactory standard of documentation in the files of patients. A prescriptions and notes are to be signed, with a printed name and locator number legibly recorded; Be responsible for certifying death and complete appropriate documentation; At the direction of the Clinical Director, assist with operational research in order to enhance the performance of the Service; Dictate discharge summaries on patients that are discharged by their team and letter to General Practitioners following outpatient visits in a timely fashion; Obtain informed consent for procedures within the framework of the Medical Councinguidelines which state: "The practitioner who is providing treatment is responsible for obtaining informed consent beforehand for their patient. The Medical Council believes that the responsibility for obtaining consent always lies with the consultant – as the one performing the procedure, they must ensure the necessary information is communicated and discussed." "Council believes that obtaining informed consent is a skill best learned by the hous surgeon observing consultants and experienced registrars in the clinical setting. Probationer 	Outpatients	Assess and manage patients referred to outpatient clinics and run the clinics on behalf of senior staff where appropriate
 Regularly review immunodeficiency patients attending daystay for IVIG to ensure that there are no acute problems that the IVIG dose is adequate and that 6 monthly follow up is organised. Supervise Immunology Day Ward venom and drug desensitisation and food and drug challenges in association with an Immunology nurse and SMO. Maintain a satisfactory standard of documentation in the files of patients. A prescriptions and notes are to be signed, with a printed name and locator number legibly recorded; Be responsible for certifying death and complete appropriate documentation; At the direction of the Clinical Director, assist with operational research in order to enhance the performance of the Service; Dictate discharge summaries on patients that are discharged by their team and letter to General Practitioners following outpatient visits in a timely fashion; Obtain informed consent for procedures within the framework of the Medical Councing uidelines which state: "The practitioner who is providing treatment is responsible for obtaining informed consent beforehand for their patient. The Medical Council believes that the responsibility for obtaining consent always lies with the consultant – as the one performing the procedure, they must ensure the necessary information is communicated and discussed." "Council believes that obtaining informed consent is a skill best learned by the hous surgeon observing consultants and experienced registrars in the clinical setting. Probationer 		Communicate with referring person following patient attendance at clinics;
there are no acute problems that the IVIG dose is adequate and that 6 monthly follow up is organised. Supervise Immunology Day Ward venom and drug desensitisation and food and druchallenges in association with an Immunology nurse and SMO. Maintain a satisfactory standard of documentation in the files of patients. A prescriptions and notes are to be signed, with a printed name and locator number legibly recorded; Be responsible for certifying death and complete appropriate documentation; At the direction of the Clinical Director, assist with operational research in order to enhance the performance of the Service; Dictate discharge summaries on patients that are discharged by their team and letter to General Practitioners following outpatient visits in a timely fashion; Obtain informed consent for procedures within the framework of the Medical Councing guidelines which state: 1. "The practitioner who is providing treatment is responsible for obtaining informed consent beforehand for their patient. The Medical Council believes that the responsibility for obtaining consent always lies with the consultant – as the one performing the procedure, they must ensure the necessary information is communicated and discussed." 2. "Council believes that obtaining informed consent is a skill best learned by the hous surgeon observing consultants and experienced registrars in the clinical setting. Probationer		Arrange and perform outpatient investigations challenges in association with an Immunology nurse and SMO. Maintain a satisfactory standard of documentation in the files of patients. A prescriptions and notes are to be signed, with a printed name and locator number legibly recorded; Be responsible for certifying death and complete appropriate documentation; At the direction of the Clinical Director, assist with operational research in order to enhance the performance of the Service; Dictate discharge summaries on patients that are discharged by their team and letter to General Practitioners following outpatient visits in a timely fashion; Obtain informed consent for procedures within the framework of the Medical Councing guidelines which state: "The practitioner who is providing treatment is responsible for obtaining informed consent beforehand for their patient. The Medical Council believes that the responsibility for obtaining consent always lies with the consultant – as the one performing the procedure, they must ensure the necessary information is communicated and discussed." "Council believes that obtaining informed consent is a skill best learned by the hous surgeon observing consultants and experienced registrars in the clinical setting. Probationer 		Regularly review immunodeficiency patients attending daystay for IVIG to ensure that there are no acute problems that the IVIG dose is adequate and that 6 monthly follow-up is organised.
 prescriptions and notes are to be signed, with a printed name and locator number legibly recorded; Be responsible for certifying death and complete appropriate documentation; At the direction of the Clinical Director, assist with operational research in order to enhance the performance of the Service; Dictate discharge summaries on patients that are discharged by their team and letter to General Practitioners following outpatient visits in a timely fashion; Obtain informed consent for procedures within the framework of the Medical Councinguidelines which state: "The practitioner who is providing treatment is responsible for obtaining informed consent beforehand for their patient. The Medical Council believes that the responsibility for obtaining consent always lies with the consultant – as the one performing the procedure, they must ensure the necessary information is communicated and discussed." "Council believes that obtaining informed consent is a skill best learned by the hous surgeon observing consultants and experienced registrars in the clinical setting. Probationer 		Supervise Immunology Day Ward venom and drug desensitisation and food and drug challenges in association with an Immunology nurse and SMO.
 At the direction of the Clinical Director, assist with operational research in order to enhance the performance of the Service; Dictate discharge summaries on patients that are discharged by their team and letter to General Practitioners following outpatient visits in a timely fashion; Obtain informed consent for procedures within the framework of the Medical Council guidelines which state: "The practitioner who is providing treatment is responsible for obtaining informed consent beforehand for their patient. The Medical Council believes that the responsibility for obtaining consent always lies with the consultant – as the one performing the procedure, they must ensure the necessary information is communicated and discussed." "Council believes that obtaining informed consent is a skill best learned by the hous surgeon observing consultants and experienced registrars in the clinical setting. Probationer 	Administration	prescriptions and notes are to be signed, with a printed name and locator number enhance the performance of the Service; Dictate discharge summaries on patients that are discharged by their team and letter to General Practitioners following outpatient visits in a timely fashion; Obtain informed consent for procedures within the framework of the Medical Councinguidelines which state: "The practitioner who is providing treatment is responsible for obtaining informed consent beforehand for their patient. The Medical Council believes that the responsibility for obtaining consent always lies with the consultant – as the one performing the procedure, they must ensure the necessary information is communicated and discussed." "Council believes that obtaining informed consent is a skill best learned by the hous surgeon observing consultants and experienced registrars in the clinical setting. Probationer 		Be responsible for certifying death and complete appropriate documentation;
 Obtain informed consent for procedures within the framework of the Medical Counce guidelines which state: 1. "The practitioner who is providing treatment is responsible for obtaining informed conser beforehand for their patient. The Medical Council believes that the responsibility for obtaining consent always lies with the consultant – as the one performing the procedure, they must ensure the necessary information is communicated and discussed." 2. "Council believes that obtaining informed consent is a skill best learned by the hous surgeon observing consultants and experienced registrars in the clinical setting. Probationer 		At the direction of the Clinical Director, assist with operational research in order to enhance the performance of the Service; guidelines which state: 1. "The practitioner who is providing treatment is responsible for obtaining informed conser beforehand for their patient. The Medical Council believes that the responsibility for obtaining consent always lies with the consultant — as the one performing the procedure, they must ensure the necessary information is communicated and discussed." 2. "Council believes that obtaining informed consent is a skill best learned by the hous surgeon observing consultants and experienced registrars in the clinical setting. Probationer beforehand for their patient. The Medical Council believes that the responsibility for obtaining consent always lies with the consultant — as the one performing the procedure, they must ensure the necessary information is communicated and discussed." 2. "Council believes that obtaining informed consent is a skill best learned by the hous surgeon observing consultants and experienced registrars in the clinical setting. Probationer		The state of the s surgeon observing consultants and experienced registrars in the clinical setting. Probationer
		2. "Council believes that obtaining informed consent is a skill best learned by the house surgeon observing consultants and experienced registrars in the clinical setting. Probationers should not take informed consent where they do not feel competent to do so.

Section 2: Weekly Schedule

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday*
a.m.	Day Ward cover, (IVIG, challenge, immuno- therapy) Phone calls Outpatient clinic ACH	Day Ward Inpatient referrals	Day Ward Phone calls Inpatient referrals	Day Ward Phone calls Outpatient clinic (starts 10.30) Phone calls Grand rounds	Medicine CME. Day Ward Vaccination clinic ACH every 3-4 weeks Inpatient referrals Teaching Phone calls
p.m.	Immunology CME Day Ward cover Inpatient referrals Phone calls Consultant teaching (Rheum CME)	Day ward cover Outpatient clinic 3 in 4 Anaesthetic allergy clinic (1 in 4)	Outpatient clinic ACH Phone calls Day Ward cover Inpatient referrals	Outpatient clinic ACH (1 in 4) Phone calls Day Ward Inpatient referrals	Day Ward cover In patient referrals Phone calls

^{*} Friday activities impacted by weekend roster

Section 3: Training and Education

Nature	Details
Protected Time	The following educational activities will be regarded as part of normal duties (unless attendance is required for other duties as per roster)
	Orientation at the beginning of the run
	Clinical Immunology training – Monday 1300-1400 location TBA
	Grand Rounds – Thursday 1200-1300 Education Centre
	Rheumatology CME – Monday 1600-1800 (optional)
	General Medicine Friday AM (optional)
	Case discussions Clinical Immunology – Monday PM, Friday AM Timing of educational sessions is subject to change
The Registrar is ex	pected to contribute to the education of nursing, technical staff and medical staff when

Section 4: Cover

Other Resident and Specialist Cover

There a 2 Registrars in Immunology that work between 0800 and 1700 Monday to Friday

The Registrar also participates for the 6 months of their run in a Medical Subspecialty duty roster. Night duties Monday to Thursday 2200-0800 and will be responsible for duties both in the Medical Specialities and General Medicine, these duties will be shared between the Medical Registrars on duty and will involve admissions and ward duties, up to 1 setover six months.

Weekend duties for Infectious Diseases Saturday and Sunday, up to 6 sets over six months. When Registrars are rostered on call off site during the weekend, they are required to attend a ward round from 8am – 12pm on both Saturday and Sunday and then be available on call off site from 12pm – 10pm. The registrars are not entitled to claim a call back payment for the ward round as this is included in the calculation of total rostered hours for the run.

Section 5: Performance appraisal

Registrar	Service
The Registrar will:	The service will provide,
At the outset of the run meet with their designated consultant to discuss goals and expectations for the run, review and assessment times, and one on one teaching time	An initial meeting between the Consultant and Registrar to discuss goals and expectations for the run, review and assessment times, and one on one teaching time.
After any assessment that identifies deficiencies, implement a corrective plan of action in consultation with their Consultant;	An interim assessment report on the Registrar three (3) months into the run, after discussion between the Registrar and the Consultant responsible for them;
	The opportunity to discuss any deficiencies identified during the attachment. The Consultant responsible for the Registrar will bring these to the Registrar's attention, and discuss and implement a plan of action to correct them;
	A final assessment report on the Registrar at the end of the run, a copy of which is to be sighted and signed by the Registrar.

Section 6: Hours and Salary Category

Average Working Hours		Service Commitments
Basic hours (Mon-Fri)	40.00	The Service, together with the RMO Support Unit will be responsible for the preparation of any
Rostered additional hours (inc. nights, weekends & long days)	7.96	Rosters.
All other unrostered hours	1.09
Total hours per week	49.05

Salary: The salary for this attachment will be as detailed as a Category E run.